

Ceddesfeld Hall

Home of Sedgfield Community Association (SCA)

SCA look forward to the autumn diary of events and activities as the colder days and nights draw in. Don't stay home, as there's lots to do at Ceddesfeld Hall. All sections and groups, (with times and contact information) are listed on the SCA website, under the 'Regular Activities' heading, as well as on the SCA 2026 pamphlet. There really is something for everyone! All hobby and interest groups provide organised activities which include playing bridge, singing in a community choir (including the youth choir), carpet bowls, model railway construction, craft clubs, handbell ringing, playing Northumbrian pipes, folk music, Last Wednesdays music group, concertina playing, art group, U3A creative writing, book group and photography group, local history, crafts with Durham Deafened, balance class, Pimms and Needles, Weight Watchers, and Pop In, which is a social group for older people. Sedgfield Squash Club is a large section of SCA, and their club is situated within the grounds – they have a full and busy programme for coaching and competition matches. Sedgfield Players too are a section of SCA, who meet Wednesdays and Sundays at Sedgfield Parish Hall.

Local organisations including Sedgfield in Bloom, Sedgfield Development Trust, Sedgfield Squash Club, Sedgfield Players, Sedgfield Uniformed Services and Sedgfield Show Committee, hold their regular meetings in one of the four upstairs meeting rooms. New volunteers are always encouraged. These groups and organisations are open to everyone, so do get in touch if anything is of interest. Any new group is also very welcome.
