

Ceddesfeld Hall

Home of Sedgefield Community Association (SCA)

It has been an eventful summer at Ceddesfeld Hall with a range of private party bookings keeping volunteers busy. SCA also supported a fund-raising music night, a quiz night and Back of Beyond Books held a sale and craft fayre. Local singing group Lirica performed their summer concert and the third 'Sedgefield Sounds' music evening, featuring 'Mamma Said', supported by other local singers was a great night for all involved. SCA are delighted to welcome up and coming younger performers to our 'home grown' talent nights, keeping up the strong tradition of live music (whether to practise, be part of a music group, or perform) at Ceddesfeld Hall. SCA, with support from Sedgefield Town Council also held the annual family fun community afternoon in August for under 12s. It was well attended and support from STC meant that all the activities were free!

As we head towards November, darker evenings and colder days are certainly with us! Ceddesfeld Hall continues to offer a warm welcome to everyone including members, sections and groups as well as visitors to the bar, which is open from Monday to Friday. There really is something for everyone!
